

Our Dead

HORNER—Johnathan D. Horner born March 9 1847, died Aug. 12, 1900, aged 53 years, 5 months and 3 days. Brother Horner was a member of the Hamlin church, having been received by the writer from the German Baptist church some six or seven years ago. Soon after he moved to Russel Co., Kans., near Dubuque, where he died. Brother Horner had been ill for some months. Last fall I visited him and preached for him in his home and administered the communion services of our church which he enjoyed and appreciated. During the few weeks before his death he suffered much but was easy when he passed over, he expressed readiness to go and asked the loved ones to meet him in heaven. Elder Himes preached the funeral sermon. Brother Horner was a hard working man and desired to succeed in life. He leaves a host of friends. The widow with the boys and girls have our sympathy. It is hard to part from loved ones but there is a brighter land where sorrow and sighing shall flee away and where we shall obtain joy and gladness in the reunion. To that time and place the loved ones can look and anticipate the joy.
